The Newsletter of Feline Alliance

Hello Antonia,

We've got a new grant!

Thanks to the Animal Assistance Foundation, Feline Alliance has been approved for a grant to assist with the cost of a collaborative TNR initiative. Soon the sound of "snip snip" will abound. Check our web site for more information in January.

If you are managing a colony or live in a neighborhood that would be interested in a targeted TNR program (Trap-Neuter-Return) in the Denver metro area, please send us an email for more information. We can support a coordinated Trap-Neuter-Return to a managed colony by subsidizing the cost of the spay/neuter. Email us today for more information!

Winter shelters

We have received 6 deluxe winter shelters from a local boy scout. Jeremy earned his eagle badge through this project, and he did an excellent job. If your colony is in need of a shelter, winter shelter, feeding station, or food, let us know. Here are two pictures of our new winter shelters.

Saving Lives - One Day At A Time

The loss of a pet can be a devastating event, often leaving families with a lingering heartache that only lessens over time. Occasionally, however, life provides an opportunity to respond to such a loss by replacing the heartache with a sense of joy and accomplishment through reaching out to others in need. Read a wonderfully heartwarming story about how a couple focused the pain of losing a recently adopted kitten by continuing to help another couple experiencing challenges in their lives and in the process managing to help 3 adult cats and over 30 kittens!

Rex the Cat

Have you ever had one of those days when you know you should have stayed in bed?

Well... this was one of those days times ten. I should have known I was in trouble when Bobby's mom was being nice to me, letting me play with all of the paper and boxes. I thought she was beginning to warm up to me. It was kind of nice because Bobby hadn't warmed up one degree. Yep, I thought things were really starting to turn around for me. I should have known better.
